

My husband is a long distance truck driver that has XM radio and has come depend on it for weather and traffic because it is always available and is easier to find the station and available when he needs it. Him being in and out of range on FM stations XM radio has made a big difference for him.